

SECRET

22 May 1969

MEMORANDUM FOR: The China Intelligence Activities
Coordination Group

SUBJECT: Meeting of the Group, Thursday,
29 May 1969

1. To confirm earlier telephone conversations, the Group will meet at Headquarters Building, Langley, on Thursday afternoon, 29 May 1969, at 1400 (rather than 1430) hours; in the Director's Conference Room, 7 D 64.

2. The meeting will concern the intelligence question of the Chinese Communist ICBM, discussion centering around the following brief presentations:

a. What we know about the Chinese Communist ICBM and its possible future testing -- [ ] CIA.

b. Problems of future Chinese ICBM production and deployment -- [ ]
[ ] Office of Strategic Research, CIA.

3. The classification of the meeting will be [ ]

SECRET

SECRET

4. At the meeting, members of the Group can drop off copies of any comments they may have prepared on two questions discussed at our meeting on 11 March 1969: Intelligence and the China Problem; and the contribution and value of clandestine reporting on China matters.

5. The meeting will also afford an opportunity for members to raise any questions they might wish the Group to examine.

China Intelligence Activities Coordinator

25X1

